The Christmas Tree Blessing

Father: This is that most worthy Tree in the midst of Paradise.
All: On which Jesus by His death overcame death for all.

Father: Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice.
All: Let the sea and what fills it resound; let the plains be joyful and all that is in them! All the trees of the forest shall exult before the Lord, for He comes; for He comes to rule the earth. He shall rule the world with justice and the people with His constancy. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
This is that most worthy Tree in the midst of Paradise on which Jesus by His death overcame death for all.

Mother: God said: Let the earth bring forth vegetation: seed bearing plants and all kinds of fruit trees that bear fruit containing their seed. And so it was. The earth brought forth vegetation, every kind of seed-bearing plant and all kinds of trees that bear fruit containing their seed. The Lord God made to grow out of the ground all kinds of trees pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And God saw that it was good.
All: Thanks be to God.

Father: O Lord, hear my prayer.
All: And let my cry come to You.

Father: Let us pray. O Lord Jesus Christ, who by dying on the tree of the Cross didst overcome the death of sin caused by our first parents' eating of the forbidden tree of paradise, grant, we beseech Thee, the abundant graces of Thy Nativity, that we may so live as to be worthy living branches of Thyself, the good and evergreen Fir Tree, and in Thy strength bear the fruit of good works for eternal life. Who livest and reignest for ever and ever.
All: Amen.
The tree is then sprinkled with Holy Water.

Special Holiday Event

A Mexican Christmas

Saturday, December 7th, 7:00 p.m.

St. John Cantius Church

Journey with us to 17th-century Mexico City, where the sonorous singing of nuns wafts into the city’s Zócalo (main plaza) and a band of villanciqueros (folk musicians) plays the jubilant music of the Christmas season.

Featuring over thirty singers and instrumentalists, A Mexican Christmas is a wholly fresh and original holiday concert that celebrates the exuberant and diverse musical traditions of Mexico.

Tickets:
$25 General Admission
$10 Student Tickets
