SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Do you love God's Word? Do you feel called to proclaim the Word at Mass on Sunday?
If you are interested, please contact Carla Rowland at this email address carla.rowland50@gmail.com. We are looking for a few parishioners to proclaim the Word at Sunday Masses. We currently have those that serve regularly, however, some Masses are still available every month.
The commitment is no more than one Sunday a month (or more often if willing and able) or as your schedule permits. No prior experience is necessary, just a willingness to prayerfully consider and prepare the readings.
Training is provided.
Thank you and God Bless!

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

St. James the Greater
Feast Day – July 25

Jesus called James and John, the sons of Zebedee, to leave their livelihood as fishermen and follow him. Perhaps because of their zeal or temperament, Jesus called them “sons of thunder.” James was the first of the 12 to be martyred; he was beheaded in Jerusalem by order of Herod Agrippa about 44. He is the patron saint of pilgrims, laborers, rheumatism, several Latin American countries and Spain, where Santiago de Compostela has been a famous pilgrimage center since the Middle Ages. Some legends say James preached in Spain before his death; others say his relics were transferred there. “The greater” distinguishes him from the other apostle James, “the lesser,” who likely was smaller or younger.

Saint Mary Magdalene
Feast Day – July 22

Mary, from Magdala in Galilee, was a disciple of Jesus who used her resources, or wealth, to help support him and his followers. The Gospel of Luke identifies Mary as the woman from whom Jesus cast out several demons. The Gospels record that she was present at his crucifixion and burial. In all four Gospels, Mary was the first witness to the Resurrection and carried that news to the others. Because of this, St. Augustine called her “apostala apostolorum,” the apostle to the apostles. On June 3, 2016, Pope Francis raised her liturgical observance from a memorial to a feast—the same rank as the observances accorded to the apostles.

Living What We Celebrate

There must be an intrinsic link between what we do in the Liturgy and what we do in the world. In the Eucharist, we partake of the Bread of life and share in the Chalice of salvation in order to strengthen our union and to become a leaven—a source of unity and healing—for a world wounded by sin and division and hungry for the holy. At the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Church does two things that illustrate the relationship between the Eucharist and the Christian life: washing of feet and collecting gifts for the poor. The ritual gesture of service leads to the work of charity. Christ is present in the liturgical act and in the charity that flows from it: "Where true charity is dwelling, God is present there" (antiphon for Offertory Chant, Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper). Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me," is therefore not only a call to partake of the Eucharist, but also a summons to charity and service.

CCC 2822-2823

Our Father "desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." He "is forbearing toward you, not wishing that any should perish." His commandment is "that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another." This commandment summarizes all the others and expresses his entire will. "He has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ . . . to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will." We ask insistently for this loving plan to be fully realized on earth as it is already in heaven.

Thank you for your generous support of the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. Your contributions will provide pastoral care and support to the people of Africa as they face many challenges that come from poverty and unemployment, high rates of disease, and migration. Your donations will fund workshops, retreats, catechesis, and other projects that build the faith of African communities. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.
You Are Invited To Become a Catechist!

It is truly a blessing to pass on our beautiful Catholic Faith. Help our parents hand on the Faith by giving of your love and time once a month on a Sunday afternoon, as you support our parents as the primary teachers of the Faith for their children.

We provide great materials and lots of support. Choose the grade (1-12) you would like to teach. We begin in mid-September. Thank you for taking this invitation into prayer and discernment!

For more information or to sign up, contact Roberta Marsh rmarsh@christthekingdenver.org or 303-388-1643 ext. 204

Family Faith Formation

Open to parishioners of Christ the King, this is a family-based weekly program of faith formation and sacrament preparation. It is taught by parents to their children at home with monthly support classes at the Church. They meet on Sunday afternoon after the Noon Mass for parents and children in grades 1-12, in their respective classes.

With its flexible schedule, it is designed for parents who wish to more intentionally teach their children the Faith and help them live it well before, during, and after their initial reception of sacraments. We believe that the stronger the parent/child engagement in the Faith, the more effectively children will mature into authentic disciples of Jesus Christ.

Registration is at a Sunday parent meeting (choose one) in July and August. Registration in July has an “early bird” family fee.

For more information go to our website www.christthekingdenver.org or contact Roberta Marsh rmarsh@christthekingdenver.org 303-388-1643 ext. 204

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Do you know of a family member or friend who has expressed an interest in the Catholic Faith and thinking about coming into the Church? Are you desiring baptism, or baptized in another Christian faith and feel the Lord’s pull into the Catholic Church? Are you a baptized Catholic and would like to complete your sacraments of initiation? If the answer is “yes” to any of these, contact us to see if the RCIA process is for you. We begin on Sunday mornings in September.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a fundraising event for our St. Vincent de Paul Society. They are collaborating with us to Help People Living in Poverty. The Knights have generously donated $2,500 in matching funds. So far we have received $725. Please help us meet our goal of $2,500.

ON YOUR CHECK MADE TO ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY MAKE THE NOTE "K OF C MATCHING FUND" or a similar description that will identify your donation to his particular matching fund effort.

We need your prayers and donations to continue this work. Any amount is appreciated and used to help those we serve.

To support this work, do any of the following:
- Donate by check: Make checks payable to St. Vincent de Paul Society
- Place check in the offertory or poor box (in vestibule of church).
- Checks can also be mailed to the church office: 830 Elm St, Denver, CO 80220
- Donate Online with Faith Direct
