GOD WITHIN

God dwells in a secret and hidden way in all souls, in their very substance, for if God did not, they could not exist at all.

—St. John of the Cross
THE DAYS ARE COMING

Separation, isolation, and hostility are terrible things. We are, sadly, too familiar with all of them in our modern life, whether we look at world events or events in our own neighborhoods and families. All three readings today refer to these same sad human conditions.

The prophet Jeremiah describes world conditions as if the people of his time were sheep who had been scattered by poor leadership and corrupt shepherds. But “the days are coming,” he assures us (Jeremiah 23:5), when a new shepherd, a just king, will come. We meet that king in the second reading and the Gospel. Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Ephesians that all divisions can now cease in Christ Jesus, who has brought us together through his blood. In Mark’s Gospel we see Jesus himself, looking with pity on those searching for him as if they were sheep without a shepherd. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Sacrament of the Anointing

Sacrament of the Anointing is to be administered by a priest. The Sacrament of Anointing can be conferred upon a baptized person who has attained the age of reason and who faces illness, danger, old age, or infirmity. This sacrament should not be postponed until the person is gravely ill. Ideally, whenever a person facing illness or infirmity feels the need for strength and blessing of the church they should seek the sacrament within the context of a healing mass. The sacrament can be received more then once and should be received when a person begins to be in danger due sickness or old age. The sacrament shouldn’t be deferred until death is immanent.
