Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus says, Come to Me

“Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me’” (Jn 14:6).

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for your selves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light” (Mt 11:28-30).

Jesus invites us, each of us, all of us, as The Good Shepherd, to come to Him. We are His people, the sheep of His Flock. He speaks to us, as only He can.

“My Precious lambs of Life, know that when you are fearful, I am your tender Embrace.

When you are hopeless, I am your safe Refuge.
When you are lost, I am your vigilant Rescuer.
When you are confused, I am your Righteous Truth.
When you are lonely, I am your faithful Companion.
When you are overwhelmed, I am your calming Peace.
When you are sinful, I am your forgiving Savior.
When you are weak, I am your compassionate Stronghold.
When you are alone, I am your gentle Shepherd.
When you are grieving, I am your healing Grace.
When you are persecuted, I am your trusted Protector.
When you are worried, I am your secure Recourse.
When you are infirmed, I am your Divine Physician.
When you are broken, I am your Redeeming Lord.
When you are needy, I am your merciful Provider.
When you are empty, I am your Living Water.
When you are abused, I am your restorative Balm.
When you are rejected, I am your faithful Comforter.
When you are disillusioned, I am your discerning Path.
When you are beaten down, I am your mighty Strength.
When you are ridiculed, I am your powerful Advocate.
When you are weary, I am your empowering Source.
When you are helpless, I am your humble Servant.
When you are abandoned, I am your loving Keeper.
When you are stumbling, I am your firm Hand.
When you are crippled, I am your Glorious Healer.
When you are oppressed, I am your priceless Freedom.
When you are cheated, I am your wise Counsel.
When you are embittered, I am your renewing Transformation.
I say to you, when you Come to Me exactly as you are, know that, without a doubt, I love you immensely, for I am your Merciful, Loving Lord, and Savior who will Never forsake you at anytime. For, you are Mine.”

Deacon Formation Collection
Please give generously to the Deacon Formation Collection this weekend, October 3 & 4. The strength of the Deacon Formation Program in the Archdiocese greatly depends on your support. Your sacrificial gift can make a tremendous difference in the vocation journey of our future deacons. May God abundantly bless you for your generosity.

Deacons Tom Willbrand (Retired), John Schiffer (Retired), Fred Haehnel, Tim Dallas and Larry Boldt

The Call to be a Deacon
This weekend is the annual collection to support the men who are being formed to serve the archdiocese as Permanent Deacons. In the past, our parish has been one of the most giving communities of faith supporting a long tradition of deacons at St. Peter, and we are so very grateful for your prayers and generosity.

Here’s some interesting facts about St. Louis Deacons and what those in formation undergo to serve God and His Church:
- There have been 487 deacons ordained for the Archdiocese of St. Louis since the first ordination class in 1977. Twenty-two of whom were ordained on August 29th by our new archbishop, Archbishop Rozanski.
- Currently there are 200 active deacons servicing the Archdiocese plus 9 serving outside the Archdiocese and another 83 retired deacons living in St. Louis.
- There are currently 43 men in formation.

The men in formation:
- Spend … out of their own pockets, $3,000 in tuition over the five (5) year program. They also pay an average of $50 for books each year.
- Spend … more than two (2) hours, two nights a week for 30 weeks in academic classroom work.
- Spend … hours studying at home to keep abreast of the material being taught in each class.
- Spend … at least eight Saturdays a year in all-day special workshops.
- Each candidate and his wife attend an annual weekend (Friday to Sunday) directed retreat.
- Incur the cost of gas, and wear and tear on their vehicle (some drive more than 50 miles round-trip, 2 or 3 times a week).
- Most candidates still work full time to support their families in addition to the time spent in formation. As you can see, much is asked of each of the candidates and his family. It is to offset the cost, for these men in formation, that we have this collection. Unfortunately, all of the cost of the activities of formation cannot be covered by the candidates. Your prayers and donations are greatly appreciated.

Peace & Joy,

-Deacon Larry lboldt@stptsc.org

Ministry Opportunity--Spiritual Care & Community Life Coordinators, Collaborative Governance
Two congregations of women religious (the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood of O’Fallon, MO, and the Franciscan Sisters of Mary) are seeking two individuals to work collaboratively to develop and implement a comprehensive pastoral care plan for each congregation’s respective members. The drawing will be held on Monday, November 2.

Tickets are $1 each or six (6) for $5. Checks should be made payable to the Happy Hour Quilters. Tickets may be returned in the Sunday collection or at the church office now through Sunday, November 1. Good luck and thank you so much for your support!!

Gloria
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
Sunday Readings

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Reading 1

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend’s song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes. Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard: What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briers; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

Resp. Psalm

Psalm 80:9,12, 13–14, 15–16,19–20
R. (Is 5:7a) The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel. Why have you broken down its walls, so that every passer-by plucks its fruit, the boar from the forest lays it waste, and the beasts of the field feed upon it?

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Once again, O LORD of hosts, look down from heaven, and see; take care of this vine, hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briers; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Then we will no more withdraw from you; give us new life, and we will call upon your name. O LORD, God of hosts, restore us; if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Reading 2

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
