St. Pius Parish will be participating in a parish-wide survey!

St. Pius will be participating in a survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute! We need your help!

Please help us by participating in a 10-15 minute online survey. The survey will be accessible through an online link from March 2 - April 2. It will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish’s efforts to help you grow. All responses are confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. We will share the link with you a bit closer to the launch of the survey.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to us and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you prefer a paper copy, you may pick it up after Sunday Masses in Church or after weekday Mass in the Chapel. A printable version of the survey will also be available on our parish website after March 2. To submit the completed paper survey, please drop off in the collection basket or to the Parish Office.

If you are unable to come to church, and need a paper copy, please contact Jessi at the Parish Office, 314-772-1525 ext. 200. Thank you for your participation!

The St. Louis Review is your faith resource access to local, national and international news.

If you are not a parish subscriber, contact the parish office or make a parish contribution with your request to receive the St. Louis Review in your home.

If you are a current parish subscriber, consider a parish contribution of $35. You can drop it off in the Sunday collection, at the parish office, or through Online Giving at https://osvhub.com/stpiusv/funds

Your subscription allows print and online access.

Your cooperation with our covid-19 safety procedures, especially as the Omicron Variant continues to spread in our area, is greatly appreciated.

Please wear a mask while in Church and at any parish gathering, sanitize your hands often and if you or anyone in your household is sick, please stay home.

Parish Prayer Time

Please join us in prayer every Wednesday from 5 - 6 pm, wherever you are. We are praying for our parish, our Archdiocese and our community. The Rectory Chapel will be open during this time.

The rosary will be prayed at the beginning of the hour. The remaining time will be for individual prayer. The Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the Chapel, so this is also a time for Eucharistic Adoration.

Masks and social distancing are required in the chapel.

February is BLACK HISTORY MONTH

My love of humanity and passion for helping others inspired me to become a physician.

Health and Wellness: Had laser cataract surgery? Thank Dr. Patricia Bath. Dr. Bath was a laser scientist and inventor. Her interest, experience, and research on cataracts lead to her invention of a new device and method to remove cataracts—the laserphaco probe. When she first conceived of the device in 1981, her idea was more advanced than the technology available at the time. It took her nearly five years to complete the research and testing needed to make it work and apply for a patent. Today the device is use worldwide. Determined that her research not be obstructed by the "glass ceilings," she took her research abroad to Europe, where her research was accepted on its merits at the Laser Medical Center of Berlin, West Germany, the Rothschild Eye Institute of Paris, France, and the Loughborough (England) Institute of Technology. At those institutions she excelled in research and laser science, the fruits of which are evidenced by her patents for laser eye surgery.

Her biggest obstacle was sexism, racism, and relative poverty, the obstacles she faced as a young girl growing up in Harlem. There were no women physicians she knew of and surgery was a male-dominated profession; no high schools existed in Harlem, a predominantly black community; additionally, blacks were excluded from numerous medical schools and medical societies; and, her family did not possess the funds to send her to medical school. (Dr. Bath says her mother scrubbed floors so she could go to medical school.)

For more information on Dr. Bath, go to Changing the Face of Medicine | Patricia E. Bath (nih.gov)

In her essay, The Gift of African American Sacred Song, Sister Thea Bowman, an African American teacher and scholar, describes Black sacred song as the song of the people. The music comes from a people who share and claim a common experience, common history, common oppression, common hopes and dreams.

The first person pronoun “I” reference is communal. The individual sings the soul of the community. In heart and voice and gesture the church, the community responds. Song is not an object to be admired so much as an instrument to teach, comfort, inspire, persuade, convince and motivate.

I’ll Be singing Up there is another well-known Spiritual. For a real treat, go to YouTube and watch a performance by Black Catholics United at The Hymn’s Society 2020 virtual convention.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: Uplift Black-owned Businesses

There are many ways to uplift Black-owned businesses through these challenging times. One simple action to support people of color in St. Louis and combat racial injustices is by frequenting Black-owned restaurants and shopping at the many exceptional Black-owned shops in our city.

How do I find Black-owned businesses in St. Louis?

Put the websites below in your browser: The lists contains FOOD and DRINK, BAKERIES/CAFES, GROCERIES, ART and ENTERTAINMENT.

First Reading: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23
In those days, Saul went down to the desert of Ziph with three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph. So David and Abishai went among Saul’s soldiers by night and found Saul lying asleep within the barricade, with his spear thrust into the ground at his head and Abner and his men sleeping around him. Abishai whispered to David: “God has delivered your enemy into your grasp this day. Let me nail him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I will not need a second thrust!” But David said to Abishai, “Do not harm him, for who can lay hands on the Lord’s anointed and remain unpunished?” So David took the spear and the water jug from their place at Saul’s head, and they got away without anyone’s seeing or knowing or awakening. All remained asleep, because the Lord had put them into a deep slumber. Going across to an opposite slope, David stood on a remote hilltop at a great distance from Abner, son of Ner, and the troops. He said: “Here is the king’s spear. Let an attendant come over to get it. The Lord will reward each man for his justice and faithfulness. Today, though the Lord delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the Lord’s anointed.”

Responsorial Psalm
4:30 PM & 8 AM: The Lord is kind and merciful. Ps.103

10 AM: The Lord is kind and merciful; merciful is the Lord. - Music Issue # 802

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:45-49
Brothers and sisters: It is written, The first man, Adam, became a living being, the last Adam a life-giving spirit. But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven. As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Alleluia, alleluia
I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you. Jn 13

Jesus said to his disciples: “To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as also your Father is merciful. “Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

4:30 PM - Communion Antiphon:
O Lord, I trust in your merciful love. My heart will rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me. Ps. 13

Presentation of gifts:
10 AM: God Be in My Head - Music Issue # 406

Communion Song:
8 AM: Miracle of Grace - Music Issue # 356
10 AM: By Our Love - Music Issue # 519

Commutation Meditation:
10 AM: If Your Hear Me Singing
I'll be singing up there. I'll be singing up there.
Come on up to bright glory. I'll be singing up there.

Closing Hymn:
8 AM: Hold On to Love - Music Issue # 487
10AM: Go Make a Difference - Music Issue # 493
